KILLED IN A CYCLONE

Fourteen Lives Crushed Out on a Steamer's Deck.

OVER A HUNDRED INJURED.

A Day of Enjoyment to Six Hundred People Suddenly Changed into a Scene of Lamentation and Mourning—A List of the Dead and Those Seriously Injured.

HUNTINGTON, LONG ISLAND, N. Y., Aug. 13.—The employees of Theodore Hayser, a Brooklyn dry goods merchant, gave an excursion to Warpe's grove, Cold Spring harbor, yesterday afternoon, by the excursion steamer Crystal Spring and the barge Republic. The party, which numbered nearly 600 souls, had a very pleasant day's enjoyment, and about 3 o'clock they embarked on the vessels for the journey home.

Just as they were leaving the dock a violent cyclone swept over the harbor and struck the barge. The awning of the upper deck was wrenched from its fastenings, lifted high in the air and fell with a terrific crash and destructive force upon the crowded deck. A scene of wild confusion and panic ensued, which beggars description. The screams of the women and children, of which the excursion party was mainly composed, the hoarse shouts of the men, and the groans of the wounded and dying could be plainly heard above the rumbling of the thunder.

Inky, black clouds had made it almost as dark as night, and at every lightning flash those on board the steamer saw a great mass of persons struggling to extricate themselves from beneath the wreck and ruin of the awning. The boats were hastily tied to the dock again and those on the steamer, aided by the villagers who had hurried to the scene, began the work of rescuing those on board the barge. The debris was soon cleared away and the bodies of the dead and injured were taken from the barge and put on board the steamer, where the wounded received every attention.

Fourteen persons were found to have perished by the storm, which had sprung up with such frightful suddenness, changing a scene of gayety to one of lamentation and mourning.

The coroner immediately summoned a jury and, after an examination, permitted the removal of bodies. The jury, in its verdict, strongly censured the owner of the excursion barge for carelessness, as the vessel was found to be as rotten as punk and totally unseaworthy.

The bodies of the dead were sent to their late homes in Brooklyn last night.

ANOTHER ACCOUNT.

Dispatches from New York Detailing the Terrible Disaster.

NEW YORK, Aug. 13.—Fourteen persons were killed outright and thirty more were injured at Cold Spring harbor at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon. They were just clearing the dock on an excursion barge to return to Brooklyn when the vessel was struck by a heavy squall and dashed against the dock. It was in the midst of a terrible thunder storm, the waves ran high and some people think that the mast of the barge on which the people were killed was struck by lightning. This is not known, however.

All was excitement and confusion: women and children were running about and screaming with fright. The sky was dark and threatening and a heavy sea was running when the upper deck of the barge fell with a crash upon the crowd beneath. Fourteen persons lay dead upon the deck when the wreckage was cleared away, and upward of thirty more were severely injured. Others are supposed to have fallen into the water, but up to the present time no bodies have been washed ashore or recovered.

The excursion was sent out by the large dry goods house of Geiser, of Brooklyn, for the benefit of its employees, but many other persons took advantage of the excursion to go along. In all there were about 600 persons, nearly all of whom are residents of Brooklyn and Williamsburg.

The following dead have been identified:

Mrs. Kate Faller, aged 40, and her seven-year-old daughter Kate.

Miss Goetz, aged 18.

Robert Shuler, pilot of the barge.

Kate Kantz, aged 4.

Lizzie Schrenk, aged 9.

Caroline Prince, aged 52.

Mrs. Liverfink, aged 38.

Henry Hoffman.

Carl Schneider, aged about forty-five.

Mr. Sihoo, aged 50.

Otto Faller, eighteen-months-old, the child of Kate Faller.

Henry Randall, of Grand and Seventh street.

Hannah Hiller, of 140 Boerum street. The rest of the dead were mostly women and children, who have not yet been identified.

Among the injured were:

Lizzie Weber, broken leg, Middle Village, L. I., taken to St. Catherine's hospital.

Miss Eiselman, 100 Skillman avenue; broken leg.

Miss Rhodes, of Maspeth, L. I., broken leg.

Caroline Graves, 17 years old, of 16 Grattan avenue, broken leg.

Hollow Steel, aged 2 years and 6 months, of 344 Leonard street, internal injuries.

A special train of five cars, of the Long Island railroad, brought many of the injured to the Bushwick depot at an early hour this morning. They were all taken to their homes. Among them were Aaron Hiller, brother of Hannah Hiller, of Cold Water, L. I.; badly hurt and not expected to live.

The station house where the bodies were taken is surrounded by crowds of people and the scenes are heartrending.

Captain John Gibbons, the commander of the Crystal Stream, told the following story of the catastrophe: "I was standing on the upper deck of the steamer, ready to go into the pilot house. It was about 5 o'clock and all the passengers had come aboard. Black clouds were coming rapidly from the west and I feared a heavy storm, so concluded not to start just then. The storms showed signs of passing to the south of us and we concluded to start. I went to the pilot house, rang the bell to start and took hold of the wheel. Then there came a most awful gale from the west.

"There was a roaring and rushing that fairly deafened me; a sudden heavy downpour of rain and a flash of lightning, followed by a terrific peal of thunder that sounded as if the earth was being rent asunder.

"It seemed to me as I looked out that we were in the center of a cyclone which struck the steamer just aft the port bow. It twisted off the flag staff, tore down the awnings and two of the heavy stanchions, splitting the deck open. Then it caught the barge. There was a terrific crashing of timbers and the air was full of flying wood.

"I was so stunned for an instant that I could not move. Recovering I grabbed an ax that I keep in the pilot house and rushed out. The air was full of the cries of the wounded. Those who were not wounded were in a terrible state of panic. I began to cut away the timbers and take out the injured. All we got out who were dead were dead when they were extricated. One little girl cried piteously 'Save me, save me,' but before I could reach her she was dead. A man jumped overboard and was rescued by Francis Radley, whom we keep in a life-boat alongside in case of accident. I took 300 to Astoria, many of whom were injured though not seriously."

ATTEMPTED ASSASSINATION.

A Man Shot Down in the Depot at New Philadelphia, O.

NEW PHILADELPHIA, O., Aug. 18.—At Valley Junction, this county, yesterday, while Mr. C. W. Athey, agent of the Cleveland and Marietta railroad, was waiting for the southbound passenger train, a man giving his name as Samuel McKeown, of St. Louis, seated himself alongside of Mr. Athey in the depot and opened up his valise, taking out a revolver and placing the same in his hip pocket. Very soon afterward, without speaking a word or making any demonstration, McKeown pulled the gun from his pocket, and placing it against the abdomen of Mr. Athey, pulled the trigger and shot him.

McKeown was arrested by W. T. Gates, of Valley Junction. The assassin stated that he did not know why he shot him. Sheriff C. P. Dequiff was telegraphed for and went after the prisoner and brought him to this city and placed him in the county jail.

Mr. Athey resided at Hanleyville, O.

His wound is a very severe one and it is feared he cannot live.

Cost of the Elliott Trial.

COLUMBUS, O., Aug. 13.—The total costs in the Elliott case, including fees of Attorneys Booth and Holmes, are $18,150.19. Booth and Holmes were allowed $3,500 each, and $8,198.20 of the total costs is jury fees. The county will have to pay the attorneys, and under a ruling of Auditor Poe, will also be compelled to pay jury fees. This will make $7,950.99 to be paid by the state, and $10,199.20 by the county. This is the largest bill for the conviction of a criminal presented under Auditor Poe's administration.

NEW YORK, Aug. 13.—The second deposit of $500 a side in the lightweight championship match for $7,000 between Champion Jack McAuliffe, of Brooklyn, and Austin Gibbons, of Paterson, N. J., was posted yesterday. The balance of the stake-money is to be posted on Aug. 26, when the Granite club of Hoboken, will also deposit $4,000, the amount of the purse it offers.

EVENING BULLETIN.

DAILY, EXCEPT SUNDAY.
ROSSER & McCARTHY,
Proprietors.

THURSDAY, AUGUST 13, 1891.

The majority for the new Constitution is far above most everybody's calculations and the claims of the most ardent friends of the new organic law. The official returns from eighty-six counties show that 159,540 votes were cast for it and 50,816 against it; majority for it, 108,724. It is estimated that the vote of the thirty-three other counties will run this majority up to not less than 135,000. It may go to 140,000.

NOTHING would delight the Cincinnati Commercial Gazette as much as a Republican victory in this State, but the C.G. has probably given up all hopes along that line. It remarks: "The Democratic vote in Kentucky seems to be pretty firmly fixed. Nothing appears equal to the task of dividing or seriously impairing it. There were conditions this summer that would have disrupted a party in any of the Northern States, but the Democracy of that Commonwealth is evidently wedded to its idols."

The Democrats of Kentucky are no uncertain quantity. They can be relied upon every time to vote for good government.

SENATOR KENNA, of West Virginia, wants it understood he is "utterly opposed to the apparent scheme to switch the Democratic party off to silver as the main issue in order to beat Cleveland for the nomination." He says: "It makes no difference personally or politically to me. But the combination to force Cleveland off the track, and the tariff issue with him, ought to fail, and it will. It is but little short of mockery to quibble about the form of our currency, when people are robbed and plundered daily of nearly all they have got. Let silver be coined. Coin is free, but never for a moment forget that neither silver, gold nor greenbacks, nor all combined, can bring and maintain prosperity for a people whose earnings are exhausted by merciless taxation and reckless extravagance."

Brown's Majority.

The exact figures are not yet known. Of the one hundred and nineteen counties, twenty-two had not reported their official vote to the Secretary of State at last accounts. The ninety-seven counties which have reported gave Brown 117,244, Wood 93,688, Harris 2,713 and Erwin 19,590 votes. Brown's plurality in these counties is 23,556 votes. These same counties gave Governor Buckner a plurality of 14,359, and the percentage of increase in this election is figured out to be 66 2-3. According to this rate of increase Brown's plurality will not be far from 27,000.

The vote for the People's Party ticket runs up a little higher than first returns indicated, but it is still far short of what the leaders of that party claimed before the election.

Railway News.

The rolling stock of railways in the United States, aggregated by Poor's Manual from the company returns for their fiscal years, ending at different periods in 1890, was represented as follows: Locomotives, 32,241; passenger cars, 22,958; baggage, mail and express cars, 7,253; freight cars, 1,061,970; total number of cars, 1,092,241. These figures indicate an increase of 1,200 locomotives and 11,134 cars of all kinds in the preceding year. As many of the company reports from which statement is made are now from six months to more than a year old, the present equipment of our roads is considerably greater than the totals show (provided the latter contain no duplications) and it may be said that, in round numbers, there are now in the United States at least 33,000 locomotives and over 1,100,000 cars.

Pointers for Next Week's Races.

Lucy Cooper, a bay mare entered in the 2:40 class to be trotted Aug. 22nd here, won the 2:40 race at Sharpsburg Tuesday in 2:34.

The purse in the 3:00 class at Nicholasville was taken by the brown mare Zembla, in 2:21. She will appear here in 2:27 class.

The Bath County stakes at Sharpsburg was won by Lucy Simmons Tuesday in straight heats. She is entered here for the C. and O. stakes.

Bonnie Wilmore won the 2:19 trot at Nicholasville Tuesday. Best time 2:17. This stallion is entered in the same class here, but he will have to beat such fast ones as Angelina, Mattie H., Valissa, Allie Wilkes, Egalite and Bermuda.

At Nicholasville this week Axminster was sent for a record and trotted in 2:20. He is by Wilton and a grandson of George Wilkes. Axminster is entered for the Smith stakes here, but he will have eighteen competitors for the purse. Daddy K., one of these competitors, won a $350 purse at Sharpsburg Tuesday, in 2:20.

THE APPELLATE JUDGESHIP.

Candidate Wilhoit, of Carter County, Talks of the Coming Contest. Judge Wall Interviewed.

The contest for the Appellate Judgeship in this district is already attracting considerable attention. Judge Cole, of this city, Judge Beckner, of Winchester, Judge Cooper, of Mt. Sterling, and Judge Wilhoit, of Grayson, are the only ones so far mentioned as aspirants for the high honor. The latter was interviewed a few days ago by the Covington Post, and it is evident from his talk that some one has not been giving him correct information. In speaking of the race he said: "Judge Beckner, of Clark, is the only fully announced candidate for the position besides myself. Judge A. E. Cole, of Mason, and Judge John E. Cooper, of Montgomery, are both spoken of as probable candidates, but whether they will be or not, I cannot say. I have a very strong letter from Judge Cooper, and while he does not say positively that he will not be a candidate, yet from the tone of the letter, I hardly think he will. I also have assurances from some of Judge Cole's warmest and closest friends that they do not think he will enter the race. These gentlemen are all my friends, and if all four of us are candidates it will be a friendly contest for preferment, and I feel safe in saying it will be conducted on high principles, feeling as I do, that I desire the success of my party, above personal preferment, and believing that the others occupy the same position. Should I be chosen as the standard-bearer of the Democracy in this fight, I shall make a thorough personal canvass of the entire district. I will carry the war into Africa, and of success before the people I have no doubt."

Judge Wall, who is in Cincinnati, was hunted up by the Post and asked in regard to the race. Referring to Colonel Wilhoit's statement, he replied: "Judge Cole is, to my certain knowledge, an out and out candidate for the position, and expects to win. He is in the fight to stay and there can be no doubt of it. He has talked to me regarding the race in the last few days and gave me a number of cards announcing his candidacy to give to my friends. And in addition to this he has made several trips to various portions of the district in the interest of his candidacy. Judge Cole is not only a candidate, but he is an aggressive one. He is a very methodical man. He wanted to be County Attorney, then Commonwealth's Attorney, then Circuit Judge, then Appellate Judge. The three first offices he has attained, and filled with honor and distinction, and is now a full-fledged aspirant for the best and highest, and I can assure you he will let no 'grass grow under his feet' until after the nominating convention. I feel almost certain he would have been candidate for the Superior Judgeship, but he is a man who never leaves what he has, or rather what the party has entrusted to him, until he has discharged the duties thereof fully, and his commission as Circuit Judge not expiring until after the Superior Judgeship had to be filled, but in time for him to make the race for Appellate Judgeship, he determined to jump over the Superior Court and make a fight for Judge of the Appellate Court."

The Post's interview naturally drifted to the coming contest for the position now held by Judge Cole, and Judge Wall replied: "There are several gentlemen who are aspirants for the position now held by Judge Cole, Judge of the Circuit Court, but they can do nothing until the State is redistributed under the new Constitution. Hon. James P. Harbeson, of Fleming, will certainly be a candidate, and Hon. Thomas H. Paynter, of Greenup, our present Congressman, is also very prominently mentioned. But there are two things which make Paynter's candidacy very doubtful. First, he may desire to make another race for Congress, although he is now filling his second term, and it is hardly customary to give more than two terms to one man; second, it is no means certain that Greenup County will be in our judicial district, as the district will certainly be much smaller. Should Colonel Paynter be a candidate he will prove a very formidable one."

For the Farmer.

It is well known that corn is the chief fattening food for pigs in a large part of the United States. Experiments which were made during three years are reported in full by the Illinois Station, showing the feeding value for pigs of corn, of corn and grass, of grass alone, the comparative value of soaked and dry corn, the value of droppings from cattle and of apple pomace in feeding pigs. In eight trials in which corn alone was fed, aside from salt and coal slack, pigs varying in weight from 65 to 290 pounds, kept in pens or small lots without grass, gained at the rate of from 10.46 pounds to 14.73 pounds per bushel, the average gain being 12.36 pounds per bushel of shelled corn. The rate of gain for food eaten and the food eaten in proportion to weight decreased after four or six weeks' feeding with corn only. There seems to be no constant relation between the weight of the pigs or the season of the year and the food eaten or the gains made.

In four trials, pigs fed all they would eat of shelled corn, with blue grass pasture, gained at the rate of 12.04 pounds per bushel of corn. Pigs under like conditions except that they were fed half as much corn, gained at the rate of 12.03 per bushel. Pigs in dry lots fed shelled corn, gained at the rate of 10.52 pounds per bushel. In no case did pigs make satisfactory gains after six or eight weeks feeding on corn alone.

In two trials pigs fed soaked corn ate more and gained more than those fed on dry corn, but the difference was not great. Two pigs in a two acre pasture lot in which three yearling steers were fed corn, gained in twenty-four weeks 195 pounds. In a second trial under like conditions two pigs gained 231 pounds in thirty-one weeks; the gain in neither case being large. A trial of apple pomace as food for pigs resulted unsatisfactorily; the pomace kept well, but the pigs ate but little of it. A short experiment made it so evident that it is unprofitable to confine pigs to a grass diet solely, that further trials in that direction were not made.—New York World.

PARKS HILL.

Pointed Paragraphs and Personal Notes Penned for the Bulletin by "J. B. H."

Correspondence of BULLETIN.

PARKS HILL, August 12.

Rev Dr. J. M. Boland, of Paris, preached a surprisingly fine discourse on Tuesday morning to a large audience on the greatness, grandeur and eternity of God, from this text, II Chronicles, 6: 18: "But will God in very deed dwell with men on the earth? Behold, heaven and the heaven of heavens cannot contain thee: how much less this house which I have built!"

Wednesday morning at 11 o'clock he preached from II Corinthians, 6: 13, 14, 15, which was ably treated throughout the hour. The peroration was climactic. He won many compliments for his eloquent utterances.

The social meetings of mornings, led by Rev. Morris Evans, are of deep spiritual power. The testimonies of the brethren and sisters—old soldiers of the cross—are impressive, and some very touching experiences are given, interspersed with song.

The afternoons are devoted to instrumental and vocal concerts for the benefit of the fifty boys and girls in camp. Prof. Bristow teaches the little "pilgrims" and "soldiers," (that's his poetic name for the bright little boys and sweet little girls) until they sing like cages of tuneful birds. He is a capital teacher, a composer of music and one of the most skillful organists in Kentucky.

The four B's—Dr. John Boring, Rev. A. Boring, Dr. J. M. Boland and Dr. W. T. Bolling—are the leading camp meeting preachers in Kentucky this week. Characteristically acquainted with the four B's, we can testify that they have no capacity to bore, except in the right direction.

One of the prettiest features of the camp is the cherubs—the snowy little babes and the starry little maidens and bright little boys. Here they are in sample: Kennar Barns Fogg and Shinkle Bristow, of Covington; Morris Attkin, Pattie Lee Fleming and Annie Ingles, of Flemingsburg; Lena Duncan, Pearl Campbell, Ava Parks, Bassettine Glenn, Maggie Duke Watson, of Shannan.

On the bridge awaiting the arrival of the north bound train last evening we saw a boy of pretty girls, all campers, looking for friends. There were the Misses Rhodora and Fannie of Mason; Lula Andrews, Ollie Frant, Fannie Fleming, Elizabeth Dudley and Catherine DeBell, of Flemingsburg; Mary Champ, Lilla Current, Lannie Mock, Lida Clarke, of Millersburg; Lena Mann, Miss Seudder, Mattie Ross, of Carlisle; Bertie Clay, of Paris, and Miss Duerson, of Louisville.

The Best Remedy for Cholera Morbus.

[From the Des Moines (Iowa) Leader.]

Some weeks ago a Leader man went into a drug store and asked: "What is the best remedy for cholera morbus?" He was told: "Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy." The medicine was purchased, and worked like a charm. It proved to be very effective, and since we found by experience in our own household that this particular remedy was of real value, we have not hesitated to speak of its merits as occasion offered. For sale by Power & Reynolds.

Cincinnati Tobacco Market.

(Tuesday)

The breaks were of only fair size, and there is no change to note from last week, an easy market prevailing, with no special activity, buyers being indifferent bidders, and sales not satisfactory. Common and low grades compose the bulk of the offerings, and for this kind the prices paid are on the part of the buyers, and the previous week's prices are easily followed. Medium leaf was easier. Color trash and good leaf, which were in light supply, show only a fairly good demand at prices that show no change from previous reports. There was nothing fine on sale.

THE WAREHOUSE WAR

It is Looming Up Again at Louisville.
The Growers Against the Trust.

The stockholders of the Kentucky Tobacco Growers' Warehouse held their annual meeting at Louisville this week, and there was a lively row for a short time between two factions that have grown up in the Board of Directors.

One was headed by M. I. Barker, the broker and speculator of Carrollton and Cincinnati, and C. Dewees and J. L. Dewees, father and son, rich tobacco growers and dealers. The other faction was composed of the farmers. The Commercial says: "It was rumored that as Barker had the manufacturers at his back, and as Dewees is rich and influential, the other crowd would get the worst of the fight."

A long discussion resulted. Finally, the factions got down to "figgers," and Mr. Scott, one of the farmers, proposed to buy out the interest of the Barker crowd. It was agreed at last that Barker and the Dewees should sell their stock at what they paid for it, 6 per cent. interest, and a bonus of about 15 per cent. With this agreement the opposition withdrew and the Scott faction had the warehouse.

"The withdrawal of the Barker crowd is believed to be the beginning of the end of the intimate relations that have been maintained between the manufacturers and the growers' house," adds the Commercial. "The old warehousemen are preparing to give the buyers the option of living up to an agreement not to buy from any house that is not under bond for the honest conduct of their business with both the buyers and sellers, and members of the Exchange; or to abolish the Exchange and take things in a free-for-all style as used to be the case."

General John S. Williams will remain as President of the growers' company.

The other officers will be: W. L. Scott, Vice President; W. T. Jones Manager; R. H. Alexander, Secretary and Treasurer.

Mr. W. H. Robb is Mason's member of the new Board of Directors and Mr. W. Piper represents Nicholas County.

The growers' house is doing a splendid business and is giving the warehouse trust lots of trouble.

THE CHILIAN WAR.

A Report Made to the Navy Department at Washington

FROM OUR OWN WAR VESSELS.

Admiral Brown, Commander-in-Chief of the Pacific Station, Furnished Our Government With Details of the Present State of Affairs in Chili.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 13.—The following report has been received at the navy department from Admiral Brown, commander-in-chief of the Pacific station:

U. S. FLAGSHIP SAN FRANCISCO, COQUIMBO, Chili, July 3, 1891.

I have the honor to report the arrival of this ship at this place on the 28th ult. On June 18, Rear Admiral McCann left Iquique for Callao, Peru, in the Baltimore.

Since that date I have visited Arica, Pisagua, Antofagasta and Caldera, and at each of those places I found the congressionalists or insurgents in quiet possession of the civil and military authorities.

At Pisagua, Colletta-Bueno, Iquique, and Antofagasta vessels are loading nitrates as rapidly as if no war existed, and the insurgents are collecting the export duties on the same. At Pisagua there were two American barks and one schooner, and at Antofagasta one American bark.

About two weeks before my visit to Pisagua the government torpedo vessels Condell and Lynch and the armed transport Imperial had, without any previous notice, bombarded the city. They fired ninety-five shells into the city, but did no serious damage to property and no one on shore was even wounded. The same vessels appeared off Iquique and began firing at the city, but at such a long range that no projectile reached the shore or could be seen to strike the water, although a great many shots were fired. The insurgent ships got under way and went out at full speed, but the government ships, by their superior speed, did not allow the insurgents to get within range of them.

The land forces of the insurgents are mainly concentrated at Iquique, where there are about 6,000 men well armed. Their aggregate force at all the ports held by them number about 8,000.

The insurgent naval vessels Esmeralda, Cochrane, Huascar, Magellenes, O'Higgins and Abtao, and several armed transports are generally at Iquique. I met the Cochrane and Magellenes at the Caldera on the 27th ultimo, and I have information that they were subsequently joined by the Huascar, and that the three vessels are not at Huasco.

Government Troops Defeated.

IQUIQUE, Aug. 13.—On Aug. 8 the congressional steam transport Maipo anchored here after an absence of forty-five days. She brought a large supply of munitions of war, including seventy-five Krupp guns of different caliber and 12,000 magazine rifles, with a plentiful supply of ammunition. It is believed they were transferred from a European steamship near Falkland islands, and great care was taken to prevent a repetition of the Itata affair.

The transport rigged up an extra smoke stack to prevent detection by President Balmaceda's ships. The arms were at once served out to troops and they started immediately to attack the government forces in and around Coquimbo. A battle was fought on the 9th inst., the congressionalists gaining a slight victory over the government troops, who are said to have gone further south.

EX-CONGRESSMAN SCOTT.

He Has Improved and There Are Hopes for His Recovery.

PITTSBURG, Aug. 13.—A special to The Times from Erie, Pa., says that ex-Congressman Scott's condition is slightly improved.

His physician said: "I am confident that Mr. Scott will recover, though his recovery will be necessarily very slow. I consider that he has passed the turning point and the chances are greatly in his favor. I shall strongly urge that he go abroad during the presidential campaign, for you know it will be absolutely impossible to keep Mr. Scott from taking an active part in the campaign, especially if Mr. Cleveland should be nominated."

A Brave(?) Man.

LOGANSFORT, Ind., Aug. 13.—A bulldog belonging to Frank Smith, of the North Side, went mad yesterday evening, and several children were bitten by the animal. Mrs. Smith beat the dog from her children with a pole. When the mad brute sprang at her it was with difficulty that she protected herself. Her husband, who is an old soldier, seeing the maddened animal, became scared and dashed into the house, where he barred the doors and left his wife and children to the mercy of the brute.

Cruelty to Paupers.

NEW PHILADELPHIA, O., Aug. 13.—Charles Shontz, superintendent of the infirmary, waived examination to appear before the next term of court on a charge of assault and battery on an inmate. What teeth Shontz could not pull from the inmate he broke off to keep him from biting his clothes.

They Left the House.

TIFFIN, O., Aug. 13.—A. L. Flack and family returned from a prolonged sojourn at Lakeside to find that during their absence their residence had been ransacked by burglars, who carried off nearly every movable article of value, including a large collection of rare and very valuable coins.

Woman Killed by Lightning.

AKRON, O., Aug. 13.—During the progress of Tuesday evening's electrical storm Mrs. Bert Travis, one of the best known young women in Cuyahoga Falls, this county, was instantly killed by lightning while trying to close the chamber windows.

Cable Car Cuts Off a Leg.

CINCINNATI, Aug. 13.—Benjie Meyer, 8, at 2 p. m., Wednesday, was run over by a Walnut Hills cable car and lost a leg. He was removed to his home, 9 Kenton street. The accident happened at the corner of Gilbert avenue and McMillan street.

LATEST BASE BALL RUMOR.

A New Circuit Soon to Be Made in the Association.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 13.—Mr. Von der Ahe finally admits that the Association is making an effort to change the circuit, and names Brooklyn and Pittsburg as probable successors to two Association cities. Just what towns Brooklyn and Pittsburg will succeed he will not say, but the chances are that Brooklyn will take Boston's place in the Association.

This at least is the opinion of a certain prominent Association player, who says that in the hatchet-burying convention of the League and Association shortly to take place the question of the new make-up of the Association will come up and the League will consent to Brooklyn entering the Association and pledge their word that they will assist in getting the consent of the Brooklyn authorities for Sunday games. The provision that the League will make is that the Boston Association club be transferred to Brooklyn, thus giving the League a free field in Boston and the Association an opportunity to again popularize Sunday playing in Brooklyn.

Pittsburg will take the place of Cincinnati as an Association city. This is almost a certainty.

The League will transfer its Pittsburg club to Indianapolis at the earnest request of John T. Brush, and the Association will make a desperate effort to transplant the Louisville club to Milwaukee.

Wool and Tallow Destroyed.

CHICAGO, Aug. 13.—Tons of wool and tallow and thousands of costly hides were destroyed by fire after 1 o'clock yesterday morning in the big ware house of George Oberne and H. M. Hosick, at the corner of Michigan street and Lasalle avenue. The loss is estimated at about $85,000. In less than an hour the double five-story building which the wool men occupied was completely gutted by explosions of oil stored on one of the upper floors.

From Beggary to Great Wealth.

SANTA CRUZ, Cal., Aug. 13.—A young man who has begged at the kitchen door of many houses in Santa Cruz has just received a letter from Germany announcing that he is heir to the estates of Count Wolfgang Ballestrom, valued at $600,000. The young man recently heard of his father's death, and for several weeks has been expecting letters giving details of the will. He married a poor girl in the east, and declares he will now rejoin her.

Where Lee Surrendered to Grant.

PARIS, Tex., Aug. 13.—The house at Appomattox, Va., in which General Lee surrendered to General Grant was sold a few days ago for $10,000. It was the property of the Ragland heirs, three of whom live in this city. The parties purchasing, it is said, are representatives of the Grand Army of the Republic, and it is believed that that organization intends to hold an annual encampment at the historic old school, as several hundred acres of land in the vicinity have been purchased by the same parties that bought the house.

Anxious for a Fight.

NEW YORK, Aug. 13.—The following special dispatch was received at The Police Gazette office yesterday from East Liverpool, O.: "Ed Smith, the Denver heavyweight pugilist, has issued a challenge to fight Jim Hall, Bob Fitzsimmons or Jim Corbett for the largest purse offered. Smith can be backed here for $1,000 to fight any of the middle-weights or George Godfrey (colored), Joe McAuliffe or Jake Kilrain."

Building Blown Down.

PITTSBURG, Aug. 13.—During the heavy windstorm Tuesday afternoon at Sheridan station, on the Panhandle railroad, a new frame building on which three carpenters were at work was blown down. One of the carpenters, named Wentzel, was fatally hurt, having his back broken and breast crushed in. The other men were also injured, but less seriously.

Storm in the Northwest.

CARLTON, Minn., Aug. 13.—At 2 o'clock yesterday morning a heavy hail-storm passed over the region of Sawyer and Big Lake, totally destroying gardens and crops of all kinds. The heaviest part of the storm passed directly over a village of Chippewa Indians, one mile north of Sawyer, demolishing a number of huts. No deaths are reported.

Prisoner Attempts Suicide.

VIENNA, Aug. 13.—The woman Schneider, who, with her husband, was arrested on a charge of murdering and robbing a servant girl, whose body was found in a forest near Vienna, threw herself from a window of her cell in the third story of the jail yesterday and was so badly injured that she will doubtless die.

Lightning's Death Stroke.

BALTIMORE, Aug. 13.—The heavy thunder and lightning storm yesterday afternoon dealt a death stroke near Towson. Peter Hick, a gardener on Mrs. James Fisher's place, was instantly killed by lightning while gathering vegetables. His son, Charles Hick, was stunned by the bolt, but recovered.
